

Encinitas & North Coast
Democratic Club
(June 2016-Present)

Accomplishments for 2018

- Educated, informed, motivated and engaged those who were not previously politically involved
  - Sample of Excellent Speaker Presentations
    - Russian Bots Influenced the 2016 Election (John Mattes, Investigative Emmy Award-Winning Journalist)
    - How Trump is Weaponizing the Courts with Judicial Picks that will Harm America for the Next 40 Years (Attorney Howard Wayne from the American Constitution Society)
    - Cyber Security Around Elections (Kathy Cruz, Senior Advisor to the State of California's Chief Information Security Officer)
    - Immigration and the Devastating Impact of the Recent Changes Imposed by the Trump Administration (Carmen Chavez, Executive Director from the Casa Cornelius Law Center)
    - Gun Crime Prevention (Nikki Faddick from Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America, Steve Bertram from Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence and high school student Emily O'Heir, and Cindi Clemons from Never Again.org)

- GO Team Outreach

- The Club Board consists of 2 GO Team Coordinators for Encinitas and Carlsbad districts with 113 volunteers associated with the Club
- Our volunteers knocked on approximately 1200 doors canvassing for democratic candidates with incredible success

- Organized candidate forums for both the CD49 and AD76 candidates
  - Our members were able to judge for themselves the strength of each candidate and select the strongest candidates in the primary election who could defeat the Republican candidate.

ENCDC
Encinitas and North
Coast Democratic Club

- Social Activism

- The Club initiated a postcard writing campaign at Club meetings by providing stamped-addressed postcards to elected officials on a range of political topics. This has been highly successful with several hundred postcards mailed to date

The logo for the Encinitas and North Coast Democratic Club (ENCDC) is displayed within a purple rectangular border. The acronym "ENCDC" is written in a large, elegant, grey cursive font at the top. Below it, the full name "Encinitas and North Coast Democratic Club" is written in a smaller, grey, sans-serif font, arranged in two lines.

ENCDC
Encinitas and North
Coast Democratic Club

- Political Action Committee (PAC)

- Met with local and state candidates early in the campaign season to assess their platforms while providing opportunities to hone their talking points
- Organized Meet & Greets for both the Encinitas & Carlsbad city candidates
- Distributed literature about democratic candidates at booths at the Encinitas street fairs (Fall, Spring and Oktoberfest)
- Conducted voter registration in high schools (registered 100 new voters in 4 North County High Schools)
- Provided speaking opportunities at our Club meetings to offer exposure for the candidates.

The logo for the Encinitas and North Coast Democratic Club (ENCDC) is displayed within a purple rectangular border. The acronym "ENCDC" is written in a large, elegant, grey script font at the top. Below it, the full name "Encinitas and North Coast Democratic Club" is written in a smaller, grey, sans-serif font, arranged in two lines.

ENCDC
Encinitas and North
Coast Democratic Club

- Our members efforts resulted in a high percentage (80%) of Club-endorsed district and county candidates wins
  - Mike Levin in the 49th Congressional District (CD) after 18 years of being represented by a Republican
  - Tasha Boerner-Horvath in the 76th State Assembly District (AD), which had been represented by a Republican for 6 years
  - Matt Bower for Superior Court Judge winning against an incumbent of 6 years
  - Rick Shea re-elected to the Board of Education
  - Encinitas city council is now all Democrats (including the Mayor)
  - Carlsbad city council now has a Democrat majority for the first time ever